INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION

Dublin & Boston: Leveraging Resources & Maximizing Opportunity

ACTION (The Assoc. of Cleantech Incubators of New England) and The Green Way, Ltd. (Dublin's Cleantech cluster), in celebration of their new international partnership, invite you to discuss collaboration between the Dublin and New England cleantech clusters.

Sponsored by Enterprise Ireland and hosted by Bingham McCutchen, two panels will discuss cleantech investing and entrepreneurship.

Cleantech Investment Climate: Warming or Cooling?

A cleantech investor panel will discuss the cleantech investment climate in New England and Ireland and future prospects. What's hot and what's not? In what areas should entrepreneurs focus?

International Collaboration and the Role of Incubators in Cleantech Innovation

The panel will discuss how incubators can accelerate the growth of emerging companies and how the industry, cleantech innovators and investors can take advantage of resources available in each country. This panel is a call to action for cleantech innovators in New England and Dublin to accelerate their business through international collaboration.

Space is limited. Please register here to reserve your place.

Special thanks to our sponsor Bingham McCutchen for hosting the event.
